SUPPLEMENTAL RESPONSE TO RESTRICTION REQUIREMENT

Assistant Commissioner for Patents
Washington, D.C. 20231

In the Communication issued April 10, 2000, the Examiner stated that since Applicant elected a non-aqueous carrier, Applicant also must elect certain additional species.

Consequently, according to the Examiner's designations of three additional groups, Applicant responds as follows:

RECEIVED

MAY 18 2000

- 1) For claims 6-10, Applicant elects a low melting wax, beeswax;
- 2) For the matrix, Applicant elects d) a composition with a polymeric matrix material;
- 3) For the polymer, Applicant elects lactides and copolymers thereof.

1600/2900

Applicant traverses the requirement for election of the species listed in items 1 and 3 above. The carriers including waxes, oils, fats and lipids are similar in nature, the differences primarily being in molecular weight. A search of one kind will reveal references disclosing all kinds.

The situation with polymers is similar. A search will reveal such prior art patents as U.S. Patent No. 4,938,763 which discloses all the polymers listed.

For these reasons it is submitted that the election of species should be modified to require designation of an aqueous or non-aqueous carrier and a polymeric or non-polymeric matrix. The other species designations do not establish meaningful differences since the various compounds listed are so similar that a search for one kind will reveal all kinds.

Applicant respectfully requests a favorable examination of the merits of this patent application. The Examiner is invited to telephone Applicant's attorney (612- 373-6939) to facilitate prosecution of this application. Please charge any additional fees deemed necessary to Deposit Account 19-0743.

Respectfully submitted,

Richard L. Dunn
